Treaty on Biological Warfare

2663. DR. RAJA RAMANNA: Will theMinisterof EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that India signed and ratified a UN treaty on biological warfare sometime ago;

(b) whether this was done in haste as the country faces danger to its security by the unrestricted development of weapon grade bio-materials in many countries; and

(c) if so, whether the possibility of withdrawing from the treaty has to be considered ?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JASWANT SINGH): (a) and (b) The only treaty in the field of bio-warfare is the Biological and Toxin Weapons Convention (BTWC). The BTWC was multilaterally negotiated, and India took part in these, at the conclusion of which it was opened for signature in 1972. India ratified the BTWC in 1974 and has been a State Party since then.
